

W H A T ' S O N

EVENTS

European Heritage

> Around Greece
 > September 23-25
 Various institutions around Greece are celebrating European Heritage Days 2011 with a series of events from Friday, September 23, to Sunday, September 25. Among them, the B&M Theodorakis Foundation is putting together guided tours, children's book events as well as presentations of the foundation's educational programs (www.thf.gr). The National Archaeological Museum in Athens is organizing a small-scale, temporary exhibition with pieces stemming from its permanent collections as well as a guided tour on Friday, September 23 (for reservations, call 210.821.7724). The Hellenic Children's Museum, meanwhile, presents "A Day at the Market," an educational program aiming to familiarize children with the financial aspects of daily life (www.hcm.gr).

B&M Theodorakis Foundation,
 1 Merlin & Vassilissis Sofias,
 tel 210.361.1206;
National Archaeological Museum,
 44 Patission,
 tel 210.821.7717;
Hellenic Children's Museum,
 14 Kydathinaon, Plaka,
 tel 210.331.2995

Researchers' Night

> Athens
 > September 23
 The National Hellenic Research Foundation celebrates Researchers' Night 2011, along with 800 venues in 320 cities in 32 countries around Europe, on Friday, September 23. The event will feature a discussion with linguistics professor Georgios Babiniotis, Onassis Foundation president Antonis Papadimitriou and physics professor Dimitris Nanopoulos, in a discussion moderated by historian Niki Tsironis. Parallel events ranging from screenings to video art, discussions and workshops are also taking place at the NHRF in honor of research and innovation. Friday's event starts at 7 p.m.

National Hellenic Research Foundation,
 48 Vassileos Constantinou,
 tel 210.727.3687

EXHIBITIONS

With the Cartoonists' Pen

> Athens
 > To October 2
 In collaboration with the Benaki Museum, the Greek Cartoonists Association is organizing an exhibition at the museum's downtown Pireos Street annex. "With the Cartoonists' Pen" runs to October 2 and explores the current situation in Greece through the shared belief that there is humor to be found in any crisis.

Benaki Museum,
 138 Pireos & Andronikou,
 tel 210.345.3111

ReMap 3

> Athens
 > To October 30
 ReMap 3, an art project transforming areas in the downtown Athens neighborhoods of Kerameikos and Metaxourgio into a contemporary art platform, runs to October 30. The project includes exhibitions, performances and workshops at a variety of venues. For more information, visit www.remapkm.org.

TRIBUTE

Ernest Hemingway

> Athens
 > To October 18
 The Hellenic American Union is hosting a tribute to Ernest Hemingway at its premises until October 18. The event is organized in collaboration with the Museum of the Hellenic Nobel Collection and marks the 50th anniversary of the American author's death. "Ernest Hemingway: From Life to Fiction" includes photographs and rare audiovisual material.

Hellenic American Union,
 22 Massalias, Kolonaki, tel 210.368.0000

I
C
S
-
e t, r e a S T